The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself chasply, privately, and rudically.

DURSUANT to a decree rendered in the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Eastern Division of Tennessee, at Knex-ville, on the 10th day of March, 1878, in the suit of York & Fulkerson, Assignees in Bankruptcy of F. L. Phipps, Bankrupt, vs. W. H. Watterson, Administrator, and others, the undersigned will sell on the pre-at public auction, and to the highest hidder, the lands surrendered in the Bankrupt schedules of said Phipps, and mentioned in the pleadings in the above case.

These lands, now included in one boun-dary, were originally three tracts and known as the Lyons, Leeper, and Henderin a neighborhood unsurpassed in East Tennessee for its wealth, intelligence and enterprise, with Churches, Schools, Stores, wheat and small grain generally, and 400 of finely timbered woodland. Every acre of the entire trast is susceptible of cultivation. The river from this farm is navigable for flat-boats and small steamers, thus affording access to Knoxville, Chattanooga, and other Southern markets at cheaper rates than by rail for like distances. This tarm is universally regarded as one of the best river-bottom farms in East Teun., and is usceptible of division into three or more
